

Round table discussion titled “Role of women in achieving sustainable development goals 2030” was jointly organized by LEAD Council for policy and research & Zonta international Dist. 25. The main objectives of this round table discussion to create sustainable awareness of the role and impact of women in SDGs analyzing the challenges, exploring the opportunities and inspiring millions of women in our country for contribution towards SDGs. This dialogue was supported by UN Global Compact and this was remembered by Mr. Ashfaq Zaman, President LEAD, Governor Fahmida Karim Zonta International Dist. 25, Dr. Rubina Husain UN Committee Chairman, Dist. 25 Zonta International, Ztn. Munira Naim, Area Director-02, Dist. 25. Among other relevant participants were Miss Rubaba Dowla, Co-Founder and Managing Director of a Tele-medicine platform, Louise Cowcher, Development Director of British council, Catherine Cecil, Team Leader of Prokas, DFID funded program, Fakhru Ahsan, SDG lead at UNDP Bangladesh, Mr. Mokammel Hossain, Additional Secretary SDG Department of PMO and leading men & women entrepreneurs, Lawyers and members of the trade bodies at Daily Star Conference Hall on 13th May, 2017.

